

FIRST ANNUAL SANFORD HEALTH “TYPE 1 DIABETES” SYMPOSIUM
SIOUX FALLS, SOUTH DAKOTA

Sanford Research Building
2301 East 60th Street North
Sioux Falls, SD 57104

ACCELERATING CLINICAL RESEARCH IN TYPE 1 DIABETES

JUNE 11, 2010

08:30am	Paul Burn	“Welcome and symposium objectives”
		Session 1: Mono Therapies
08:45 am	Kevan Herold	“Anti-CD3 antibodies: results to date”
09:00am	Mark Pescovitz	“Rituximab and T1D: long term results of a clinical trial”
09:15am	Stephen Gitelman	“Seabiscuit rides again: Anti-thymocyte globulin in new onset type 1 diabetes”
09:30am	Denise Faustman	“MGH/Harvard translational efforts with BCG in diabetes”
09:45am	Bernhard Hering	“Porcine islets: Progress and plans for pilot clinical trial”
10:00am		Coffee break

10:30am	All participants	Discussion on status, feasibility and potential of mono therapies
12:00pm	All participants	Tour: Sanford Research Facility
12:30pm		Lunch
Session 2: Combination Therapies
01:30pm	David Harlan	"The case for early and safe intervention using combination therapy"
01:45pm	Alex Rabinovitch	"A GLP-1 and Gastrin-Based Therapy for Type 1 Diabetes: Combination of a DPP-4 Inhibitor and a Proton Pump Inhibitor"
02:00pm	Mark Atkinson	"Reversing established T1D: Thymoglobulin, Neulasta, Sitagliptin, & Lansoprazole"
02:15pm	Nelly Mauras	"Impaired counter regulation in children with type 1 diabetes: the other side of the equation"
02:30pm		Coffee Break
03:00pm	All participants	Discussion on status, feasibility and potential of combination therapies
04:30pm	All speakers	Tour: Children's Hospital
06:00pm	All speakers	Break: Clubhouse Hotel & Suites
07:00pm	All speakers	Dinner with Sanford Children's International Board, Clubhouse Cabernet Room

To create valuable discussion time and to give all invited colleagues an opportunity to be actively engaged in the discussion we kindly ask all speakers to be prepared to hold their presentations to 15 minutes.